Paurastya Vidyāpīṭham (PVP) invites research students to the marvellous world of Eastern liturgical, biblical and theological traditions which are "capable of giving a more complete Christian response to the expectations of the men and women of today" (Orientale Lumen 5).

PVP offers Licentiate and Doctorate degrees in various disciplines of Eastern Ecclesiastical Sciences, enabling the students to unveil the riches of the Eastern heritage.

Paurastya Vidyāpīṭham, the Pontifical Oriental Institute of Religious Studies, the emerging Institute in the Eastern Christian world for the advanced studies in the Biblical languages and the Syriac ecclesiastical heritage, attempts to realize the great dream of the Church with regard to the promotion of the venerable Traditions of the Church.
